Dear Dr Qi

2018 Humanities Travelling Fellowship - Notification of Award
Application HTF00050

Thank you for applying for a Humanities Travelling Fellowship from the Australian Academy of the Humanities. I am delighted to inform you that the Awards Committee has granted you a Humanities Travelling Fellowship for your project Jin Ping Mei in Japan: Translations, Adaptations, and Circulations. The amount of the grant is $3000 (GST free) towards your travel and fieldwork expenses.

The Humanities Travelling Fellowship Scheme is one of the Academy's most popular programmes and attracts a large number of high quality applications. You have succeeded in a very competitive field of early-career researchers.

The Rules of the Award require that you acknowledge this Notification of Award before payment can be made. Please fill in the attached form and send it to the programme administrator, Liz Bradtke, at grants@humanities.org.au by 23 May 2018. To support our communication efforts, you are also invited to provide a photo, short bio and details of any social media platforms you may use to promote your work for inclusion on our website and social media activities once the recipients have been announced. This can be sent to grants@humanities.org.au.

It is a requirement that a concise written report on the research activity is submitted to us via email within one month of your return to Australia. The report (of no more than 1000 words) should detail the activity undertaken, any expected outcomes, and the significance of the Academy's assistance to the project (see attached reporting guidelines).

We also request that you do not announce your successful application to your institution, colleagues or on social media until we have publicised the full list of recipients on our website. We will notify you when we have done so.

We look forward to your reply and wish you all the best for your research visit.

Yours sincerely,
