

Past the Posts? Post-Inquiry in the Post-Truth Era

18-19 July 2017

Deakin Burwood Corporate Centre
Building BC, Level 2,
221 Burwood Highway, Burwood

DEAKIN
UNIVERSITY

Day 1 - Tuesday 18 July

9.00 am

Foyer

Registration

Burwood Corporate Centre

9.30 am

North 1

Conference opening

Amanda Keddie, Deakin University

9.45 am

North 1

Keynote address

Moving-with: Activating feminist politics and practices in the early years

Mindy Blaise, Victoria University

10.45 am

Foyer

Morning tea

11.15 am

North 1

Paper 1: The 'War on Facts' and its consequences for critique
Radhika Gorur, Deakin University

Paper 2: Post-truth, authority and expertise: The 'uneducated' and the question of knowing
Jessica Gerrard, University of Melbourne

Paper 3: "Are these youths the hope of Indonesian future?": An inquiry on youth identities, politics, and new media post-gubernatorial election
Agus Mutohar and Tubagus Muhammad Septian Putra, Monash University

Provocateur:

Jill Blackmore, Deakin University

Concurrent paper sessions

North 2

Paper 1: Attending to the wince: Resisting persistent sexist and ableist metaphor in education research
Ben Whitburn and Lucinda McKnight, Deakin University

Paper 2: Exploring ethical space in the play of children's traditional games: A post-humanist view
Ririn Yuniasih, Monash University

Paper 3: Posthuman or post-truth? Climate as entanglement
Blanche Verlie, Monash University

Provocateur:

Mindy Blaise, Victoria University

1.15 pm

Foyer

Lunch

2.00 pm

North 1

Keynote address

Being Post-Colonial: The Time after Trousers
Undressing Truths and Re-writing Lies – Aboriginal Self
Redacted | Enacted

Gabrielle Fletcher, Deakin University

3.00 pm

Foyer

Afternoon tea

3.15 pm

North 1

Symposium

Affective exclusions: Methodological amplifications and (im)possibilities for inclusive education

Leanne Coll, Eve Mayes, Kim Davies, Ben Whitburn, Matthew Thomas and Tim Corcoran (Diversity Impacts and Alliances Research Team), Deakin University

Provocateur:

Roger Slee, University of South Australia

4.45 pm

Close of Day 1

Day 2 - Wednesday 19 July

9.00 am

North 1

Keynote address

Disability and the posthuman (after Brexit & Trump)

Dan Goodley, University of Sheffield

10.00 am

Foyer

Morning tea

10.30 am

North 1

Paper 1: Post-phenomenology and educational research. A reflection
Edwin Creely, Monash University

Paper 2: Statistical comparisons of self-report measures in post-modernistic psychology
Dominic Hosemans, Monash University

Provocateur:

Tim Corcoran, Deakin University

Concurrent sessions

North 2

Workshop

Posterior potentialities: Getting back to form and function

(Max 8 participants – registration required)

Facilitator:

Gary Levy, Deakin University

12.00 pm

Foyer

Lunch

12.45 pm

North 1

Symposium

Passing the Posts without a leg to stand on: Dis/ability, other than normal truths, and becoming more and less human

Paper 1: Self-ruination: Who do you think you are? Meets Graham ...
Kim Davies, Deakin University

Paper 2: Inclusive education, critical disability studies and onto-epistemologies of difference
Ben Whitburn, Deakin University

Paper 3: Special Considerations – or are they?
Tim Corcoran, Deakin University

Provocateur:

Dan Goodley, University of Sheffield

2.15 pm

North 1

Provocation Q&A

What role can education and education research play in a post-neoliberal world?

Shaun Rawolle, Julian Sefton-Green, Catherine Beavis,
Julianne Moss, Amanda Keddie and Jill Blackmore
Deakin University

3.15 pm

North 1

Fishing for the unanticipated ...

In this unusual Q&A, panellists will be provoked to respond to queries and comments 'fished' from a pool collectively stocked by participants over the two days of the conference. (Fishing rods, tackle and bait provided)

Refreshments will be provided in the session

Concurrent sessions

North 2

Workshop (repeat session)

Posterior potentialities: Getting back to form and function

(Max 8 participants – registration required)

Facilitator:

Gary Levy, Deakin University

4.45 pm

Close of Day 2