

SPAHC RESEARCH AWARD

Research Impact Award 2022

HDR Student Category - Social with an impact on Policy

IS AWARDED TO

Caroline Walters

FOR

HDR students who have contributed to changes in policy that have either had a major impact on the social well-being, equality or social inclusion of very large numbers of people at a local, state/territory or national level or a significant impact on the social well-being of the end-user, public and community of a smaller number of individuals at a local, state/territory or national level.

Topic: Mental Health Family Carer Experiences of COVID-19 in Australia

awarded December 2022

Associate Professor Kelly-Ann Bowles
Director of Research

Professor Terry Haines
Head of School