Biography

Niranjan is Adjunct Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Education, having retired from Monash in Nov 2020. . Originally trained as a geographer, he worked as a teacher and educational leader in secondary schools and international education for over 30 years before moving into tertiary education, teaching and researching across postgraduate and graduate courses in curriculum, assessment, pedagogy and Humanities education. He has been recognized professionally for his work as an educator in Australia and internationally. His tertiary leadership experience included being Acting Director Initial Teacher Education Programs and Course Leader for Primary and Secondary Education (under- and postgraduate). Amongst other interests outside education, Niranjana now maintains a small, focused research & publication program alongside occasional consultancy work.
